A handwritten musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written on five staves. The first staff is the melody, featuring a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and chords, with some notes beamed together. Above the first staff, there are handwritten annotations: "3 7" above the first measure, "3 7 3 7" above the second measure, and "3 7" above the third measure. The second staff is a bass line, also in treble clef, with notes and rests. The third staff is a bass line in bass clef, mostly containing rests. The fourth and fifth staves are bass lines in bass clef, featuring a complex, rhythmic accompaniment with many beamed notes. The entire score is written in ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper.

The image shows a page from a musical score, likely for a full orchestra and voices. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, featuring multiple staves. The tempo is marked "Tutti". The music is in a key with one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. There are also some colorful markings on the staves, possibly indicating specific instruments or sections. The overall appearance is that of a professional musical manuscript.

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It is a three-part setting for voices and piano. The score is written on ten staves. The top two staves are for the vocal parts, and the bottom six staves are for the piano accompaniment. The music is in 2/4 time and G major. The score is divided into three parts by a double bar line. The first part is marked with a "1" and the second part with a "2". The piano part features a prominent bass line with many eighth and sixteenth notes. The vocal parts have a melody that is simple and catchy. The score ends with a "Fine" marking.
